CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Direct all Missouri home game credential requests to Athletic Strategic Communications, University of Missouri, Box 677, Columbia, MO 65205. Media can also request credentials through e-mail, by sending a message to Associate Director of Media Relations Kate Lakin. Requests should be made at least one week prior to the game.

MEDIA RELATIONS

The Media Relations offices are on the third floor of the Hearnes Center. Easiest access is through the West Entrance.

F.Y.I.

The MU Strategic Communications Office will provide rosters and game notes and for the Tigers and for opponents (when available) at each home game. Starting lineups will be available in the Audrey J. Walton Track - Soccer Field - Stadium press box 10 minutes before game time.

INTERVIEWS

Members of the 2013 Missouri soccer team and coaching staff will be available for interviews by appointment only. In consideration for the student-athletes and their schedules, please request player interviews at least one day in advance. During the week, interviews will primarily be conducted following practice. Please contact Kate Lakin in the Missouri Media Relations Office at (573) 882-2531 or lakinke@missouri.edu for interview availability and practice times. University of Missouri policy prohibits the releasing of student-athletes' home phone numbers to members of the media.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Blitz will conduct post-game interviews in a designated area after a brief cooling-off period. A list of requests for player interviews should be submitted 15 minutes before the completion of the game. Player interviews will be conducted immediately following Coach Blitz's remarks. Only credentialed media personnel will be permitted onto the soccer field.

SEASON TICKET INFORMATION

For information on how to purchase soccer season tickets, call the University of Missouri ticket office at 1-800-CAT-PAWS or 884-PAWS in Columbia. Ticket order forms may also be obtained by visiting Mizzou's official website at www.mutigers.com.

Missouri soccer is expecting an exciting home slate, with non-conference games against Pacific, SEMO and Eastern Illinois. The Tigers also host Southeastern Conference foes Georgia, Florida, Texas A&M, South Carolina, Auburn and Tennessee.

Director of Athletics Michael Alden

Mike Alden has been at the helm of Missouri athletics since 1998 and it's no shock his tenure has produced the most comprehensive run of athletic and academic success in school history.

History-making landmarks have occurred each year under Alden's watch and while each event has been significant, few were as impactful as Missouri's transition into the Southeastern Conference in July 2012.

A former student-athlete, coach and current President of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics with family roots in Central Missouri, Alden has always understood the importance of Mizzou to the entire state of Missouri and helped usher in a new era with that move to the SEC, which has resulted in record-breaking facility growth, ticket sales and fan/alumni interest.

In 2013-14 Missouri begins its second season in the SEC and comes after 14-of-20 sport programs advanced to NCAA postseason play. While Mizzou maintained its competitive excellence on the field of competition, Tiger student-athletes continued to soar in the classroom ranking among Southeastern Conference leaders in both Graduation Success Rates and Academic Progress Rates.

That surge is a stark contrast from how Missouri looked prior to Alden's arrival in 1998. When the West Chicago, Ill., native took charge Mizzou ranked near the bottom of the league in on-field success, facility development and fund-raising. Since beginning his 16-year stint in Columbia however, Alden has seen several programs rise to the level of national championship contenders, highlighted by conference championships in football, men's basketball, soccer, softball, baseball and wrestling, including three league titles in 2011-12.

Last season the Tiger Wrestling squad won its first Mid-American Conference crown and the Tiger Softball team battled to the championship game of the SEC Tournament and advanced to NCAA Super Regional action for the sixth consecutive year. In addition, Mizzou's Women's Basketball program advanced to postseason play for the first time since 2007 and Mizzou Basketball, one of college basketball's winningest programs over the past five seasons now owns the longest active NCAA Tournament streak in the SEC.

While conference affiliation fueled uncertainty for many institutions, Alden and his staff helped secure the second largest donation in the history of the University of Missouri, a $30 million gift in 2012 courtesy of the Kansas City Sports Trust, kick-starting an incredible $200 million facility improvement plan. The support and growth didn't stop there. In 2013 Alden and his team also cultivated singular donations of $6.4M and $8.3M to continue moving Missouri Athletics into the next phase of its facility growth plan and the aggressive recruitment of supporters has the plan impacting nearly all of Missouri's 20 varsity sports teams, including a renovation to Memorial Stadium, which will make the home of Tiger Football one of the finest in America. Through capital campaign efforts, Alden has overseen over $265 million in private gifts for Tiger Athletics.

Alden has incorporated three core values into the mission of intercollegiate athletics at Missouri. The mission statement of "Preparing Champions for Life through Academic Integrity, Social Responsibility and Competitive Excellence" has guided Missouri in becoming one of America's most well-regarded and visible athletics programs.

Last season Missouri ranked No. 2 in the SEC in graduation and Academic Progress Rates, while the overall health of MU's athletics programs is at an all-time high. Each year Missouri is able to tout the impressive classroom performances of its student-athletes and annually receives academic recognition from the NCAA.

Socially, Missouri student-athletes have seen tremendous growth, from coach and student-athlete involvement with Big Brothers-Big Sisters and The Food Bank for Central and Northeast Missouri , to local children's hospitals and Habitat for Humanity. Missouri Athletics not only makes an impact on the playing fields, but in the lives of the community it serves. In addition, Mizzou Athletics is heavily involved in the United Way and prides itself on having 100% involvement from its department each fall.

Athletically, it's hard to argue Mizzou's advancement on the national scene. The Tigers saw 14-of-20 sports have representation in postseason competition during 2012-13, highlighted by league championships, NCAA postseason success and All-America award winners. While Missouri set a school record with eight teams finishing among the Top 25 of their respective sports in 2009, Mizzou has enjoyed 78 Top 25 team finishes at NCAA Championships under Alden's watch (an average of 5.2 per year). Prior to his arrival, the most Top 25 finishes for Missouri in a single season was just three.

Alden's legacy will transcend his program's consistent success in the classroom, socially and in competition. Upon his appointment as Director of Athletics in 1998, Missouri faced an uncertain future as it entered the Big 12 Conference era. Competing with an annual budget of just $13.7 million at the time of his arrival, Alden has grown Missouri's operating fortunes to a record $ 74 million and has added state-of-the art facilities and amenities at nearly every venue in the Sports Park at Mizzou. Overall, Alden has helped lead a record $233.2 million facility resurgence for MU athletics since his arrival and Mizzou is currently in the midst of a new $200 million facility project following the 2012 move into the SEC.

Highly regarded by his peers, Alden's success at Missouri has earned him national notoriety amongst the NCAA hierarchy. He has helped to drive policy that has not only shaped the current landscape of intercollegiate athletics, but has paved the way for the future growth of college sports as a whole.

A few of Alden's NCAA leadership committees include:

- NCAA Leadership Council (Past Chair)
- National Association of College Directors of Athletics (President)
- Division I Athletic Directors Association Board of Directors (Past President)
- NCAA Management Council
- NCAAChampionship/Competition Cabinet
- NCAA Oversight and Monitoring Group

Alden and his wife, Roxanne (Rockie), have a son, Jake (18) who is a freshman at Purdue University.

Timothy M. Wolfe

President

Timothy M. Wolfe is the 23rd president of the four-campus University of Missouri System—one of the nation's largest public research university systems with more than 75,000 students and nearly a half million alumni worldwide.

Since joining the university in 2012, Mr. Wolfe's top priorities have included increasing overall awareness of the role the system's four campuses play in advancing the education, economy, health, innovation, arts, culture and the overall quality of life across the state of Missouri; leading the campuses in a strategic planning process that sets a clear strategy for success in the next five to ten years; finding and implementing opportunities for more efficiencies across the system; investing in the university's human capital and expanding research and economic development initiatives.

Part of his success in leading the university forward is due to Mr. Wolfe's recognized leadership in recruiting, building and leading successful teams by creating innovative strategies and clear execution plans across complex enterprises. He has more than 30 years of experience in information technology, infrastructure software, consulting and sales leadership. He began his career in 1980 at IBM Corporation in Missouri, first as a sales representative in Jefferson City then as a manager in Kansas City. For the next 20 years, he assumed progressively more responsible management positions, leading to vice president and general manager of the global distribution sector.

From 2000 to 2003, Mr. Wolfe served as executive vice president of Covansys, a global consulting and technology services company headquartered in Michigan. In 2003, he joined Novell, a leading provider of infrastructure software. As President of the Americas and as a member of the senior management team for the organization, he was responsible for more than 3,000 employees and partner firms in the United States, Canada and Latin America. Wolfe was influential in developing the company's overall strategy, product development, mergers and acquisitions, marketing investments and community service initiatives.

Mr. Wolfe grew up in Columbia, and is an alumnus of the University of Missouri-Columbia, graduating in 1980 with a BS from the Trulaske College of Business. In 1995, he graduated from Harvard Business School's Advanced Management Program.

Mr. Wolfe serves on several academic and civic boards and is married to Molly Wolfe. They have twin teenagers, daughter, Madison, and son, Tyler.

Dr. Brady J. Deaton

Chancellor

Chancellor Brady J. Deaton became the 21st chief executive officer of the University of Missouri-Columbia on October 4, 2004. With 41 years of experience in public higher education, Dr. Deaton brings an international perspective and a record of national leadership to his position.

Dr. Deaton began his journey in higher education as a student at the University of Kentucky, where he graduated with a degree in agricultural economics in 1966. Growing up as the second of nine children of a hard-working farm family in Kentucky and furthered by his participation in 4-H, he developed a love of the land and a desire to study agriculture. His dedication deepened during a two-year tour as a Peace Corps volunteer in Nan, Thailand, from 1962-1964, where he taught vocational agriculture in the Thai language.

After receiving his bachelor's degree, Dr. Deaton pursued a master of arts in diplomacy and international commerce at the University of Kentucky, graduating in 1968. He went on to the University of Wisconsin where he earned a master of science in 1970 and a doctorate in 1972 in agricultural economics.

Moving from the student to the faculty ranks, Dr. Deaton spent the next six years as an assistant and associate professor of agricultural economics and rural sociology at the University of Tennessee. During this time at Tennessee, he was appointed as staff director of the Special Task Force on Food for Peace for the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C. In 1978, Dr. Deaton took a professorship position at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in the Department of Agricultural Economics, where he also served as coordinator of the rural development research and extension program.

Dr. Deaton spent 12 years at Virginia Tech, the last four as associate director of the Office for International Development. In March of 1989, he joined the University of Missouri-Columbia as professor and chair in the Agricultural Economics Department and as Social Science Unit leader. He transitioned from faculty to administration in December 1993, when he was appointed chief of staff in the Office of the Chancellor. He became deputy chancellor in 1997.

In January 1998, Dr. Deaton was appointed interim provost and was named to the permanent position in October of that year. His duties were expanded in 2001 when he also became the executive vice chancellor for academic affairs. A strong proponent of the University's role on the global stage, Dr. Deaton was instrumental as the sponsor of the Big 12 Provosts' delegation to the European Union.

Chancellor Deaton and his wife, Dr. Anne Deaton, are the parents of four grown children and the grandparents of five grandsons and two granddaughters.

Kickoff: A place kick taken from the center spot to start the match and the second half or restart play after a goal has been scored. Opposing players must remain outside of the center circle until the ball is in play. A goal may be scored directly from a kickoff.

Halfway Line: The line drawn across the center of the field, parallel with the goal line, and separating the attacking and defending zones. Also called the center line.

Referee: The official in complete control of the soccer match who is assisted by two linesmen.

Linesmen: The two officials who assist the referee. The linesmen patrol the touchlines and carry flags to signal the referee when a ball has gone out-of-bounds, an offside or a foul has been committed that the referee missed.

Touchlines: The boundary lines at each side of the field. If a ball goes completely over the touchline, play is stopped and restarted by a throw-in from the place where it went out-of-bounds. Also called sidelines.

Forward: Players who function primarily in the attacking third of the field and whose main responsibility is to score goals.

Midfielder: Players who function primarily in the central part of the field and whose main responsibility is to link the defense and attack. There are three types of midfielders: defending, outside and attacking.

Defender/Back: Players forming the last line of defense, immediately in front of the goalkeeper. Their main job is to stop attacks on goal. Also called fullbacks.

Goalkeeper: A team's last line of defense. Primary responsibility is to prevent the opponent's ball from entering the goal. The only player allowed to use her hands, provided she is within the penalty area.

Save: A successful effort by the goalkeeper to prevent a possible score by stopping or deflecting a ball aimed at the goal.

Goal: The eight-yard wide by eight-foot-high area into which players must send the ball into in order to score. Two goalposts, a crossbar and netting form the goal.

Penalty Area: An 18-by-44-yard box located directly in front of each goal. The goalkeeper may handle the ball in this area.

Penalty Kick: A direct free kick taken from the penalty spot. It is awarded to the attacking team if a defender commits a major offense within her own penalty area. Except for the goalkeeper, who must remain between the goalposts on the goal line when the kick is being taken, all players must be outside the penalty area until the ball is in play.

Goal Kick: A place kick taken from the goal area by a member of the defending team when the ball goes out-of-bounds across the goal line and was last touched by the attacking team. All opposing players must stay outside the penalty area until the ball is in play. A goal cannot be scored directly from a goal kick.

Free Kick: A place kick awarded to a team when a player of the opposing team is penalized. A free kick is either a direct kick, called for a serious offense, or an indirect free kick, called for a minor infraction. Players on the offending team must remain 10 yards away from the ball until it is put into play, unless they are on their own goal line between goal posts.

Direct Free Kick: A free kick that may score a goal directly without the ball first being touched by another player. Also a specific penalty called for fouls and misconduct.

Indirect Free Kick: A free kick that cannot score a goal without the ball first being touched by a player other than the kicker. Also a specific penalty called for a minor infraction.

Corner Kick: A direct free kick taken from a corner area by a member of the attacking team after the ball goes out-of-bounds across the endline and was last touched by a member of the defending team.

Wall: A human barrier used to aid the goalkeeper in defending against free kicks. Players may line up 10 or more yards from the ball to form a barrier between the kicker and the goal.

Handball: A major violation, the intentional use of the hands other than by a goalkeeper. The penalty is a direct free kick.

Dropped Ball: Used to restart the game after a temporary stoppage of play due to an infraction other than a foul. The referee drops the ball onto the ground between two opposing players. Play restarts when the ball touches the ground.

Obstruction: Deliberately impeding the progress of an opponent instead of playing the ball. Penalty is a indirect free kick.

Offside: A player is offside when she is between her opponent's goal line and the ball at the moment the ball is played unless she is in her own half of the field, at least two opponents (including the goalkeeper) are nearer their own goal line than she is or she received the ball directly from a corner kick, goal kick, throw-in or drop-ball situation. The penalty is an indirect free kick.

Throw-In: The method of putting the ball back into play after it has gone out-of-bounds over the touchline. A member of the team defending the team that last touched the ball must throw it onto the field from over her head, using both hands and keeping a part of each foot on the ground either behind or on the touchline. The ball is thrown in from the point where it went out-of-bounds. A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.

Caution (Yellow Card): A disiplinary action taken by the referee, signaled with a yellow card and officially recorded, against a player guilty of misconduct. A second offense warrants ejection from the match (red card).

Ejection (Red Card): Sending a player off the field. A disciplinary action taken by the referee, signaled with a red card and officially recorded, against a player guilty of a personal foul. Usually results in expulsion from at least one future match.

BRYAN BLITZ

Head Coach • 18th season
Overall Record: 233-193-26
Mizzou Record: 188-149-18
Tulsa (1987)

Bryan Blitz begins his 18th season at the helm of the Tigers soccer program and enters 2013 with a 188-149-18 record at Missouri since he was hired as the program's first head coach in 1996. A dedicated coach, there is little time off the field when he is not working to improve his team. Making an immediate impact to the program with his stellar recruiting techniques, Blitz has set a standard by enlisting some of the nation's top players each season.

In the program's first season in the Southeastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 season and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tie for the second-most in a single-season. Mizzou also recorded an 8-5 SEC mark and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

After a 7-10-2 season in 2010, Blitz led the Tigers to a 12-8-1 record in 2011 despite 13 players who were new to the program. Mizzou set a new program record for non-conference winning percentage (.909) during the year and tied the team's consecutive wins record (seven).

In 2009 Missouri reached new highs as the team claimed the Big 12 Regular Season title for the first time in school history. Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for his work to mark the second time in his career he earned the honor.

In 2008 when the Tigers had arguably their most successful season in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others. The Tigers advanced once again to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, an event Missouri hosted for the fourth time, but fell to Illinois in a penalty kick shootout after 110 minutes of play.

In 2007, Blitz directed his young Mizzou squad to a 13-8-1 record and the third NCAA Tournament berth in program history. Playing once again at friendly Walton Stadium, Mizzou advanced to the second round of the tournament for just the second time after defeating Southeast Missouri State (SEMO) in a shootout. The Tigers came up just short in the second round, falling to eventual national champion USC, 1-0, in overtime.

Over the course of the season, Missouri reached No. 5 in the national rankings, its highest-ever, and received unprecedented accolades from the Big 12 Conference. Freshman Alysha Bonnick became the first Tiger to earn a post-season award after winning Big 12 Rookie of the Year honors and Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year. Additionally, sophomore Kristin Andrighetto was just the second Missouri player to earn a spot on the All-Big 12 first team. Four Tigers were named to the second team and three players were selected to the All-Newcomer team. On the national level, Andrighetto earned All-America fourth team honors from Soccer Buzz and Bonnick was a Freshman All-America second team selection from two different publications.

In his first year with Missouri, Blitz began putting his skills to the test during the inaugural season of Tiger women's soccer. MU finished the year 6-14 and 4-5 in league play.

The Tigers continued to improve under Blitz's tutelage and logged a 7-12 record, going 3-7 in Big 12 play during the following season. Missouri's second year also saw the national spotlight as Jennifer Kram was named to the Soccer America National Collegiate Team of the Week—MU's first national recognition. The accolades would not stop there however as Mizzou placed two athletes, Nikki Thole (third team) and Kristin Boeker (honorable mention) to the Soccer Buzz Freshman All-America team.

In 1998, Blitz led Missouri to its first winning season going 11-9-1 and 6-5 in the Big 12. The Tigers also placed Thole and Boeker to All-

Big 12 teams and had five athletes (Thole, Boeker, Jackie Adamec, Amy Timmermann and Erin Grimsley) honored as all-tournament team members.

MU's fourth season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Tigers as Blitz led Missouri to a 14-8-1 season record and posted a 6-3-1 Big 12 mark in 1999. The Tigers also advanced to their first NCAA Tournament. The Tigers fell to Marquette in their national post-season debut, but put forth a strong showing as they took the Golden Eagles to a 3-2 quadruple overtime loss.

Despite the loss, Blitz coached his athletes to an astounding season. Thole received All-America accolades from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), SoccerBuzz and College Soccer Online.

By 2000, Blitz had conditioned his squad into a fine tuned machine. The Tigers earned their highest ranking in the NSCAA poll after defeating No. 18 ranked Florida State and No. 12 ranked Wake Forest in back-to-back games to win a 12th-place ranking. The Tigers split the season 10-10 with a 5-5 Big 12 record.

In 2001, Blitz reloaded the Tiger program known for its physical intensity with nine newcomers. The young squad quickly made its mark going 13-8, with a 5-5 Big 12 mark, and set a new precedent with six shutouts on the season. In addition, the Tigers defended their first perfect game in school history outshooting Indiana State 34-0 on their way to a 4-0 victory.

In 2002 the Tigers posted an 11-7-2 record with a 5-4-1 mark in the Big 12 to finish fourth in league standings. The season proved arduous as the Tigers played a record six overtime games during the year. Mizzou had two athletes named to the SoccerBuzz All-Central Region teams in Lacy Moore and Jennifer Nobis.

Keeping stride in 2003, Blitz successfully navigated his squad through one of the toughest schedules in the country. Facing 10 opponents ranked in the nation's top-25 at some point during the season, Mizzou made a late season rally advancing to both the Big 12 Tournament championship final and the NCAA second round. Highlighting the push, the Tigers overcame the odds to record an amazing come-from-behind victory over No. 4 ranked Texas A&M (5-4). Mizzou also picked up the program's first win over No. 22 Nebraska rolling the Huskers ,3-2, during Big 12 Tournament play.

Rounding out the season with a 12-11-1 record and an eighth-place Big 12 finish, the Tiger's made history as the first No. 8 seed to claim a victory during Big 12 Tournament play.

In 2004, Blitz led the Tigers to a sixth-place finish in the Big 12. Mizzou defeated two ranked teams in 2004, including then-No. 6 ranked Texas A&M, recording the program's first-ever win in College Station, Texas.

In 2005, under Blitz's direction, the Tigers posted a 9-8-3 overall record and qualified for the Big 12 Tournamtent for the ninth time in the conference's 10 year history. In 2006 he took the Tigers to a 7-0 start as the squad reeled off five straight shutouts to begin the season.

Perhaps it is his constant contact with other collegiate and club coaches that has helped Blitz raise his reputation to the level it has. Maybe it could be his ability to get the most from his players on the field. Either way, he is widely considered one of the best recruiting and hardest working coaches in the nation.

Blitz began his head coaching career at Butler University (Ind.) as the program's inaugural head coach in 1991. In his fifth season, he took the Bulldogs from obscurity to the national spotlight in an undefeated run through the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and the team's first national ranking. Blitz earned the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year award for his work in the 1995 season and received an invitation to help coach the U.S. Women's National Team.

During his five years at Butler, he developed his beliefs in hard work and in intense scouting of the top soccer talent in the country. Propelled by that philosophy he was able to perform a minor miracle in his first two months on the job in 1991 getting the talented group of young women he did. Despite his early success, Blitz didn't stop there however and has continued to bring in many impressive recruits over the past seven years. Now with the continued growth of the program, the future looks even brighter.

Developing Blitz's unique collegiate coaching perspective, he has worked and played in soccer communities around the world improving his knowledge and abilities. Blitz traveled to England to play for one year while he was in college. He returned to the states and to the University of Tulsa, where Blitz helped start the Golden Hurricane women's program as an assistant coach in 1987.

He took two years off from coaching to play in the Southwest Indoor Soccer League and the Northeast Super Soccer League (in Dallas and New York) before a desire to earn a master's degree in business led him to Butler, where he met his wife, Alie. There, he became a graduate assistant for the men's team and two years later took the reins as a women's head coach for the first time.

BRIAN DOOLEY

Associate Head Coach
First season at Mizzou
Nova Southeastern (1987)

In his first season as Associate Head Coach at Mizzou, Brian Dooley brings over 24 years of college experience to the Tiger sideline.

"I am grateful to Bryan Blitz, Mike Alden, Tim Hickman, Joe Scogin and the staff for giving me this incredible chance to be a part of the Missouri family," Dooley said. "It was apparent to me during this process that Missouri has everything in place for success on the field and in the classroom. I am looking forward to the challenge of competing in the SEC and contributing to our first championship."

Dooley spent the last 14 seasons as head coach at Florida Atlantic, where he accumulated a career record of 139-113, including seven 11-plus win seasons. He led the squad to Atlantic Sun Conference regular season titles in 2002, 2003 and 2005 and the 2005 team also claimed the Atlantic Sun Tournament title to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. That season, Dooley was honored as the Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year.

The following year, Florida Atlantic's first in the Sun Belt Conference, the Owls led all Division I teams in shutout percentage (.762), holding opponents scoreless in 16 of 21 matches.

Before his time at FAU, Dooley spent nine seasons at Barry (Fla.) University, as both head coach (1994-99) and assistant coach (1990-94). The Lady Bucs accumulated a record of 53-12-4 in his four seasons as head coach, including a trip to the NCAA Division II national championship game in 1995. While an assistant at Barry, the team earned the 1992 and 1993 Division II national titles.

Dooley played collegiately at Florida International and was a midfielder on FIU's 1982 NCAA Division II national championship team. He began his coaching career as an assistant women's coach at FIU (1986-1990).

Dooley received a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Nova Southeastern University in 1987. He and his wife, Marie, are the parents of three boys: Sean (23), Connor (20) and Ciaran (13).

KATIE ELY

Assistant Coach
First Season at Mizzou
Fairfield (2007)

Katie Ely is in her first season as an assistant coach with the Mizzou program.

"I am so excited to be a part of the Mizzou soccer family," Ely said. "With the entrance into the SEC, this is a great time for the program. I look forward to being a part of their success in a new conference and on a national level. It's an honor and privilege to be here."

Ely comes to Mizzou from Duke, where she served as the goalkeeper coach for the past two seasons. In her two years in Durham, Ely helped the Blue Devils advance to the NCAA College Cup both years. The squad played in the national championship game in 2011 and the final four in 2012. In her two years with the program, Duke compiled a record of 37-10-3, including program records of 22 wins and just four losses in 2011. Under Ely's tutelage, the Blue Devil goalkeepers set single season records in shutouts (16), goals against average (0.48) in 2011. The keepers' save percentage of .857 in 2011 also ranks second on Duke's single-season list.

Before her time at Duke, Ely spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse. With the Orange, she coached goalkeepers who set the career saves and shutouts records and earned All-BIG EAST Rookie Team honors.

Ely, a 2007 graduate of Fairfield (Conn.) University, helped the Stags to the 2002 MAAC regular season title and the 2005 MAAC Tournament crown. She is still scattered throughout Fairfield's career records list, as she ranks first in saves average, fifth in saves and sixth in wins, shutouts and goals against average.

Ely holds a bachelor's degree in history from Fairfield and a master's degree in public administration from Syracuse. She holds a U.S.S.F. "B" coaching license and an NSCAA National Goalkeeper License.

BEN BOEHNER

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second Season at Mizzou
Columbia College (2006)

Ben Boehner is in his second year with the Mizzou soccer program and his first as the volunteer assistant coach. Last season he served as the team's director of performance analysis and helped with the transition to the Southeastern Conference.

As a volunteer assistant coach, Boehner is involved with implementing training sessions and scheduling.

Before coming to Mizzou, Boehner spent two years at Missouri Valley College in Marshall, Mo., where he helped the Vikings regain past successes. During his two seasons, Missouri Valley posted back-to-back winning seasons and an overall record of 18-13-6 in the powerful Heart of America Athletic Conference (HAAC).

Boehner played collegiate soccer at Columbia College under John Klein from 2001-05. As a four-year started for the Cougars, Boehner helped push the program to new heights. The team posted a mark of 56-25-2 and an American Midwest Conference record of 23-3-1 during his playing days to establish the Cougars as one of the NAIA's top men's programs. During the summers, Boehner would also train with the Kansas City Brass of the Premier Development League in Kansas City.

A native of Parkville, Mo., Boehner earned a degree in marketing from Columbia College in 2006 and is currently working towards an MBA.

CARRIE PATTERSON

Director of Operations
Second Season at Mizzou
Georgia (2010)

Former All-American soccer player Carrie Patterson returns for her second season as Mizzou's Director of Soccer Operations.

In her role with the Tigers, Patterson helps with all facets of the day-to-day aspects of the program and spearheads the team's travel and gameday operations. In addition to her work with the Tigers, Patterson also coaches at Sporting Columbia SC, where she is the competitive coach for the U-12 Academy team, an assistant coach with the U-18 Girls squad and provides private lessons.

Patterson was an All-American player at Georgia from 2006-2009. She was a four-time All-Southeastern Conference first team selection and earned All-America second team honors from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and Soccer Buzz in 2007. In 2006, Patterson took home SEC Freshman of the Year honors and was a Soccer Buzz Freshman All-American. She still stands as the Bulldogs' all-time leader in points, goals and multiple goal games and ranks second in career assists.

Following her collegiate playing days, Patterson was drafted by the Philadelphia Independence of Women's Professional Soccer in 2010. She then signed with Vancouver Whitecaps FC of the W-League in 2011, where she helped the squad advance to the Final Four.

Patterson came to Mizzou after a stint as the Social Media Manager at Atlanta Cycling. With the organization, she created educational and awareness campaigns designed to drive revenue and build brand presence.

She also spent one year coaching at Atlanta's Tophat Soccer Club, where Patterson played club soccer growing up. With Tophat, she was the Academy program's game coach, conducted training sessions and gave private lessons.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Patterson earned a bachelor's in marketing with a minor in Spanish from Georgia's Terry College of Business in 2010. She is working toward a master's degree from Mizzou.

BARBARA MANINGAT

Director of Multimedia
Second Season at Mizzou
Missouri (2012)

Barbara Maningat enters her second year as the Mizzou soccer team's Director of Multimedia.

With the Tigers, Maningat oversees the team's social media, video and branding efforts and assists with media relations duties. She has made the program's twitter account, @MizzouSoccer, one of the top women's soccer accounts in the nation and ranked first among all Southeastern Conference teams in number of followers. Since she began in 2012, she has increased the team's Twitter and Facebook following by 61 percent and 29 percent, respectively.

In addition to her work with the soccer program, Maningat also does marketing for Newsy Videos and is a MU Journalism Ambassador. At Newsy, she manages the social media accounts and previously worked as a reporter.

Previously, Maningat served as The England Football Association's first-ever intern with its video productions division FATV in London, UK. She has also spent time with MLS team Sporting Kansas City where she produced broadcast video packages for the Sporting KC Network and freelanced for the Fox Soccer Channel.

A Platte City, Mo., native, Maningat graduated with honors from Mizzou with a bachelor of journalism with an emphasis in convergence journalism and minor in business in 2012. She is working toward a master of journalism in strategic communication.

SAM LAWSON

Director of Performance Analysis
First Season at Mizzou
University Campus Suffolk (2012)

Sam Lawson enters his first season at Mizzou as the Director of Performance Analysis. With the Tigers, Lawson handles game and practice film and coordinating video exchange.

Lawson comes to Mizzou from New Zealand, where he served as Performance Analysis for the Napier City Rovers of the Central Premier League. Wtih the Rovers, he provided game and post-match analysis for players and coaches.

He also spent time as a Performance Analyst with Hawkes Bay United in Napier, New Zealand from December 2012 - March 2013. Before his move to New Zealand, Lawson worked as the Academy Video Analyst at the Ipswich Town Football Club in Ipswich, Suffolk, England.

Lawson spent the first 16 years of his life in Germany before moving to the United Kingdom in 2007. He earned a degree in Sport and Exercise Science from University Campus Suffolk in 2012 and is working towards a master's degree at Mizzou.

OPPONENTS

"The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 80-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2012-13 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured seven national titles and five national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in football, gymnastics, men's indoor track & field and men's outdoor track and field. Since 1990, the SEC has won 156 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

Alabama won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It is the SEC's seventh consecutive football national title. Florida won the league's third consecutive gymnastics title and 16th overall. The Auburn equestrian team brought home the national title in the sport's first year in the SEC. Alabama won its first ever national championship in the sport of men's golf. Arkansas won its 12th national title in men's indoor track & field. Florida and Texas A&M shared the national title in men's outdoor track and field after both squads recorded 53 points at the national meet. Georgia's women's swimming and diving team brought home their fifth national title.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 11 of its 21 sponsored sports and in the top five in 13 of the 21 sports. Nine SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Alabama winning BCS Championship. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and seven women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had nine teams advance to postseason play in baseball with LSU and Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. With 171 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the seven team championships, 93 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 559 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 3,100 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, 12 SEC schools placed in the top 50 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. Texas A&M placed fifth while Georgia was 10th; LSU finished 19th, Arkansas 21st, Kentucky 25th, Alabama 26th, Auburn 33rd, Tennessee 37th, Vanderbilt 46th and Mississippi State 49th to round out the league's top-50 finishes.

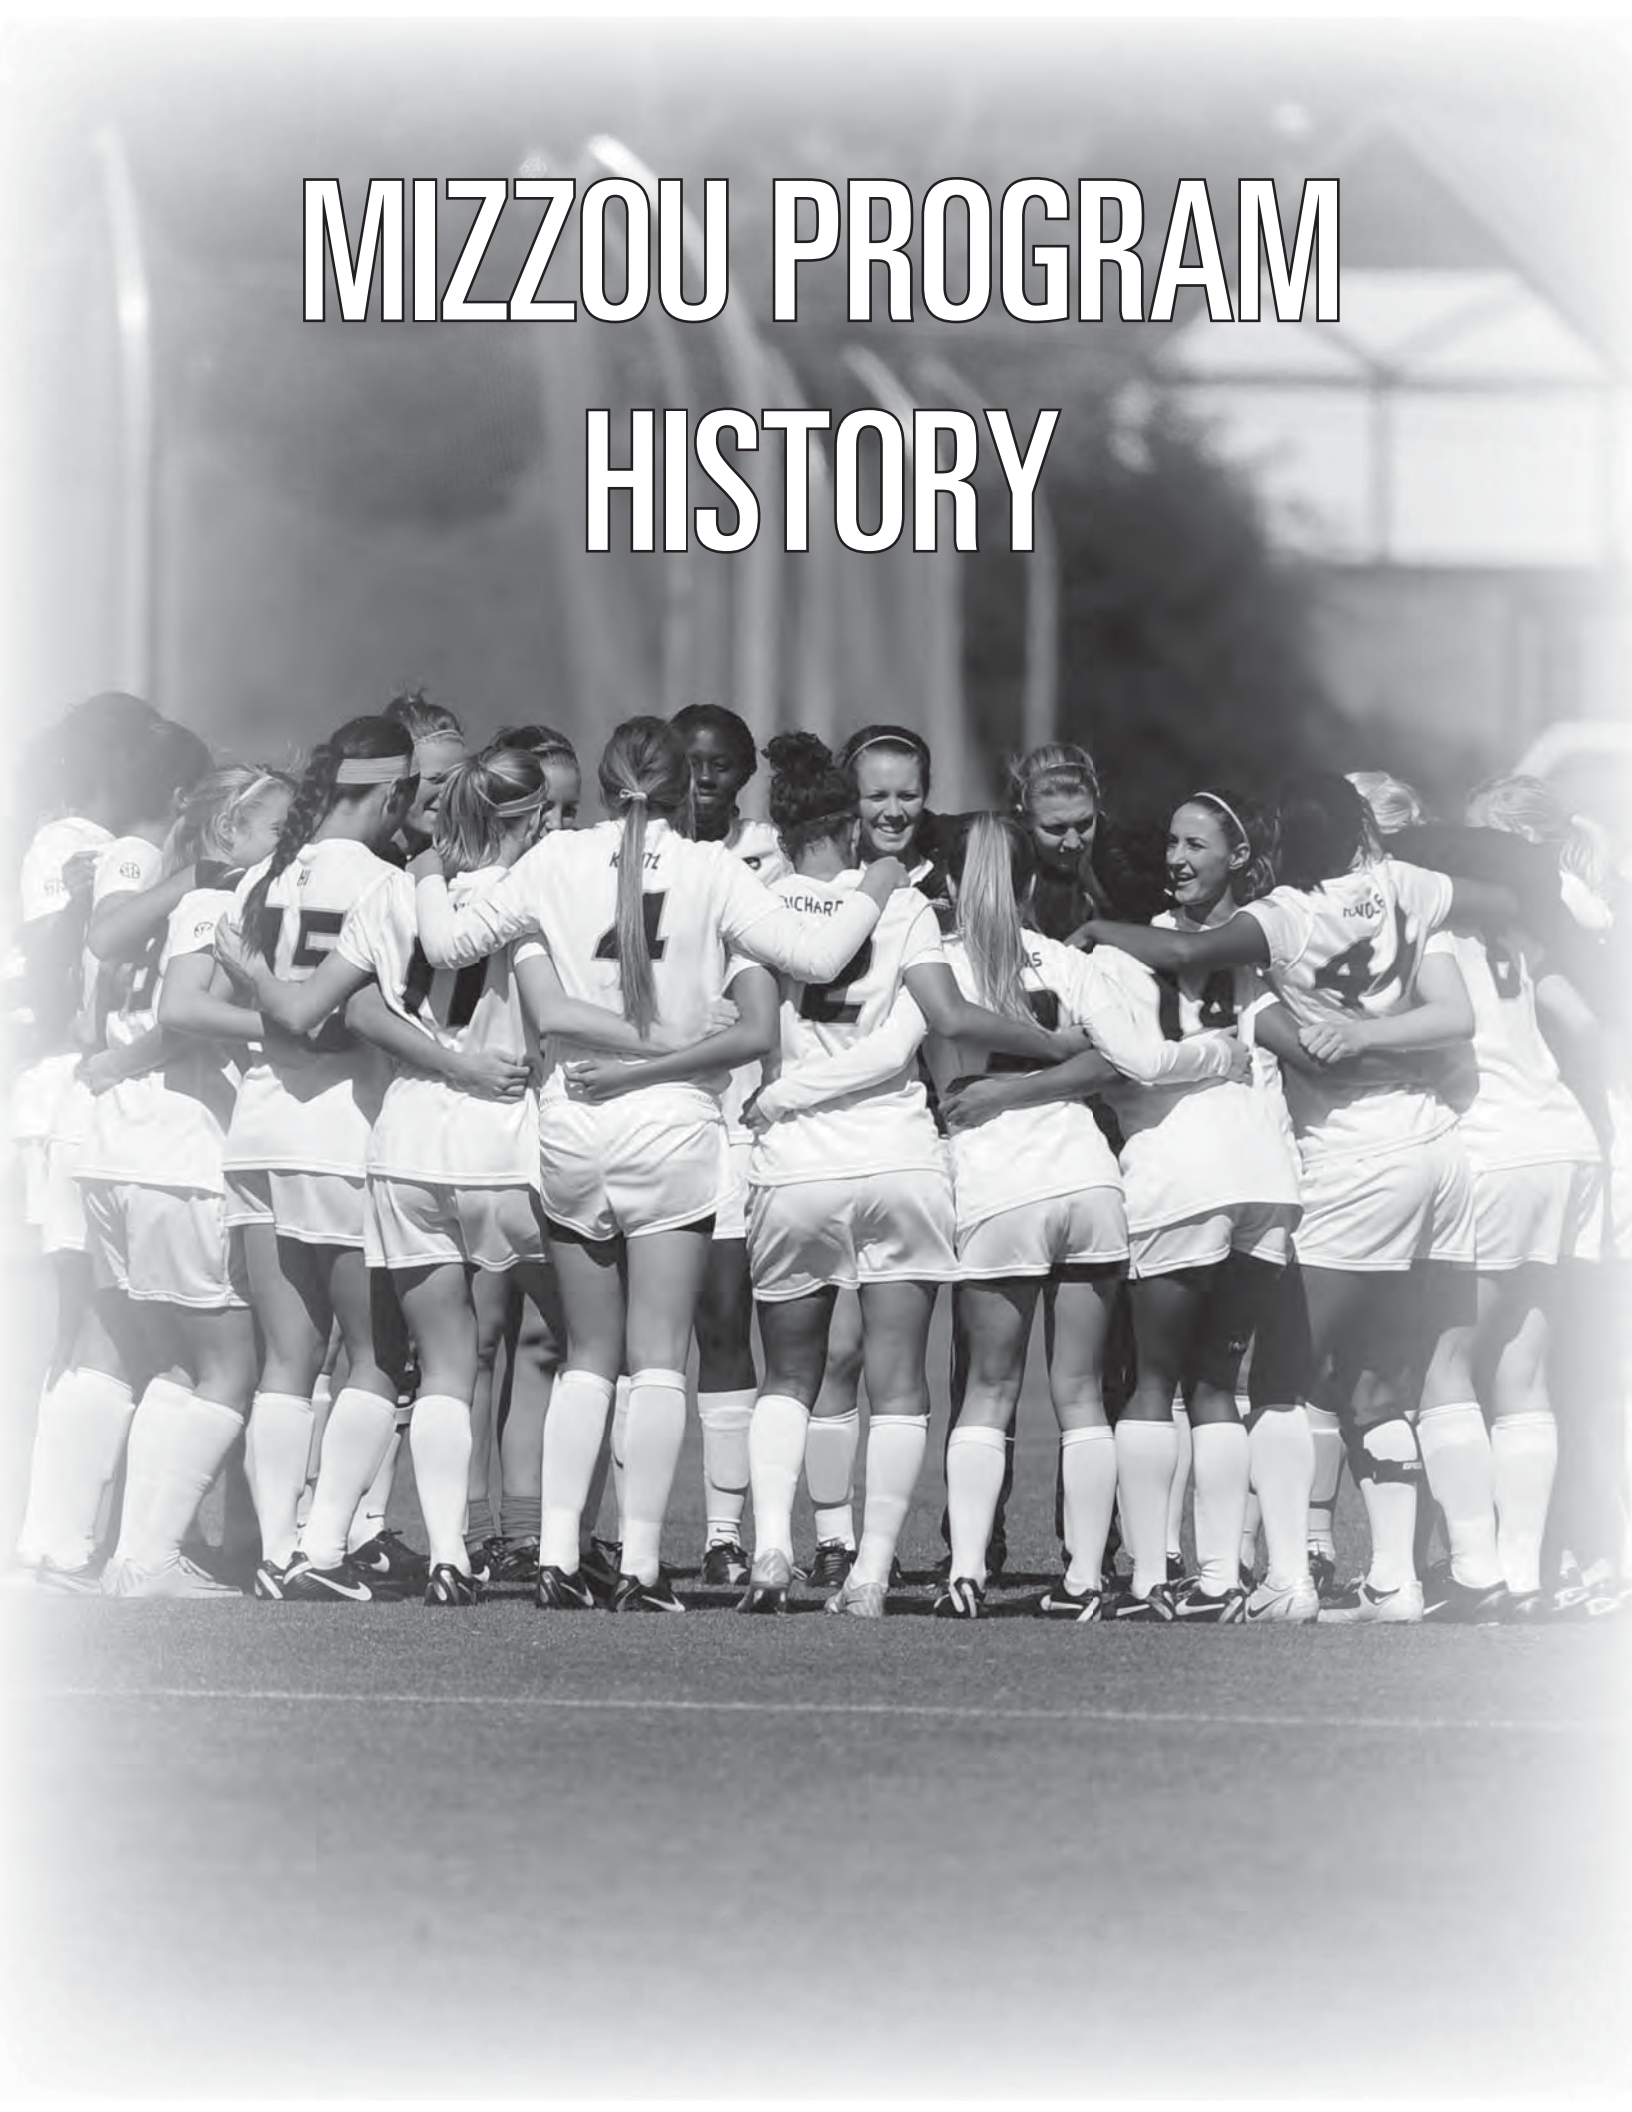
MIZZOU PROGRAM HISTORY



The Mizzou soccer team had a lot to prove in 2012. The Tigers had to prove to their new Southeastern Conference foes that Missouri was a force to be reckoned with in league play. Missouri also had to prove to the NCAA selection committee that the squad was worth of a tournament berth after missing out the past two seasons. Thankfully, Mizzou followed its 2012 mantra and did "Prove It."

Under the direction of Head Coach Bryan Blitz, who concluded his 17th season on the Tiger sideline, Missouri went 14-7-1 overall and 8-5 in its first season in the SEC. Most importantly, Mizzou returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2009 and the fifth time in school history.

From the first game of the season Mizzou put the nation on notice to not overlook the Tigers. In the season opener, Missouri dismantled No. 11 Memphis 5-1 at home on Aug. 17. Freshman Candace Johnson scored Mizzou's first goal of the season in the first half, while senior Taiwo Adeshigbin and junior Alyssa Diggs both tallied two second half goals to propel the Tigers to the victory.

Following a 2-0 home win over Santa Barbara, Missouri jumped into the national rankings, including a No. 13 ranking from Soccer America. Now with a target on their backs, the Tigers traveled to Berkeley, Calif., to face No. 19 Cal on Aug. 26. The Bears struck first and entered halftime with a 1-0 advantage, but the Tigers responded in the second half. Adeshigbin and senior Haley Krentz each scored goals in the first 14 minutes of the half to give Mizzou a 2-1 lead. Cal tied the match in the 74th minute but sophomore Abi Raymer responded with a goal of her own less than two minutes later for a 3-2 Tiger win. The victory also moved the squad up to No. 10 in Soccer America's national rankings.

Missouri continued its hot start with back-to-back home victories over Arizona State (4-1) and Tennessee Tech (2-0) to improve the team's record to 5-0. The start marked only the third time the Tigers started a season 5-0 and the first time since 2006.

The Tigers put their perfect record on the line in the non-conference finale at Ohio State on Sept. 6. The two teams remained scoreless following 90 minutes of back-and-forth play so the contest went to overtime. The Buckeyes managed to find the back of the net less than a minute into the extra session to give Missouri its first loss of the year, 1-0.

Missouri then traveled to Auburn, Ala., for its historic first-ever SEC contest. Sophomore Kaysie Clark tallied Mizzou's first SEC goal, while Krentz added an insurance goal in the second half for a 2-0 Missouri victory.

Two days later, the Tigers showcased Mizzou soccer on a nationally televised matchup with South Carolina. In the game broadcast live on ESPNU, neither team could break through until junior Dominique Bouchard one-timed a pass from sophomore Abi Raymer to put Mizzou ahead 1-0 with two minutes left in regulation.

The Tigers continued their winning ways with two home wins the following weekend to improve to 9-1 overall and 4-0 in SEC play. On Sept. 21, Missouri came back from a halftime deficit to post a 2-1 win over Ole Miss. Against Vanderbilt on Sept. 23, the Tigers recorded a 2-0 victory while dominating the Commodores 39-6 in shots.

Missouri made history following a 2-1 win at Georgia on Sept. 28. The Tigers' 10-1 record marked the best start in program history, while the team was 5-0 in league action for the first time ever.

The Tigers' winning streak was snapped with a tight 1-0 loss at Tennessee but the squad got back to their winning ways against Kentucky on Oct. 5. Diggs notched both of Missouri's goals, including the game-winner in overtime to give the team a 2-1 overtime win. Mizzou followed up the victory over the Wildcats with a 2-0 defeat of Mississippi State two days later.

Missouri took to the road again for a much anticipated matchup with No. 9 Florida. Adeshigbin put the Tigers head 1-0 with a goal in the first half but the Gators responded with two second half goals to claim a 2-1 victory.

The Tigers rebounded two days later with a dramatic 2-1 win at Alabama. Diggs struck first to give Mizzou a 1-0 advantage but the Crimson Tide later tied the game at 1-1. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, sophomore Taylor Grant laced a pass up to Richardson, who tallied her third game-winner of the year for a 2-1 final.

Following two tough losses to Arkansas and LSU, the Tigers closed the regular season with a matchup at No. 13 Texas A&M on Oct. 25. Action went back and forth throughout much of the exciting match. With Mizzou down 1-0 and just eight minutes left in regulation, Clark knotted the score at 1-1 with her fourth goal of the year. The contest went to overtime, where the home Aggies ultimately prevailed, 2-1. Following the season, Top Drawer Soccer named the match the seventh-best game of the season.

Mizzou made its third trip to Alabama in just over a month for the 2012 SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala. The Tigers advanced to the semifinals following a 2-1 win over Kentucky in the first round.

Despite a loss to No. 11 Florida in the semifinals, the Tigers earned their fifth NCAA Tournament berth in program history when the selections were announced on Nov. 5. Mizzou's first round matchup against Illinois on No. 10 was reminiscent of the team's last NCAA game against the Fighting Illini in 2009. Illinois went ahead 1-0 in the first half but tied the match in the 53rd minute when junior Danielle Nottingham tallied her first goal of the season.

The two teams were still tied after 110 minutes of play to force a penalty kick shootout. Unfortunately, The Fighting Illini proved victorious in the shootout (3-0) to end the Tigers' season.

Even though Mizzou's season did not end the way the team envisioned it, the year was still a success.

"To come out and have our first season in the SEC and to have the season we did is one of the highlights of my career," senior Jessica Greer said following the NCAA Tournament game. "Coming out and play the way we did this year I think we proved a lot of people wrong."

Many Tigers were recognized on an individual level following the season. Richardson and Diggs were both honored by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), as Richardson was named to the All-South Region second team and Diggs to the third team. Additionally, Diggs and Richardson both earned spots on the All-SEC first team, with Diggs becoming just the third Tiger to earn multiple all-conference first team accolades. Johnson was named to the SEC All-Freshman team and senior Allison Hu claimed SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year honors.

In the classroom, Hu became the second Academic All-American in program history when she earned a spot on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Women's Soccer Second Team. Diggs was also honored for her work off the pitch after earning Capital One Academic All-District 6 accolades.

Despite the loss of five seniors, Mizzou returns eight starters and a strong nucleus of players for the 2013 season. No longer the new kid on the block in the SEC, and with the recent NCAA bid under their belts, the Tigers will strive to reach new heights next year.

2012 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- The Mizzou soccer team earned its fifth NCAA Tournament berth in program history and finished 2012 with a 14-7-1 record.

- The Tigers were ranked in the national rankings for much of the season, including a high of 10 in early September.

- Mizzou's 10-1 record to begin the season marked the team's best start in program history. The squad also started 5-0 in league play for the first time ever.

- A 2-1 win over Auburn on Sept. 21 gave Missouri its first ever Southeastern Conference victory.

- The Tigers advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals with a 2-1 win over Kentucky in the quarterfinals.

- Senior Allison Hu was selected as the SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year. She also became the second Academic All-American in program history when she earned a spot on the Capital One Academic All-America Division I Women's Soccer Second Team.

- Richardson and Diggs were also named to the All-SEC first team. With her honor, Diggs became just the third Tiger to earn multiple all-conference first team accolades.

- Freshman Candace Johnson also received accolades from the SEC with a place on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

- In the classroom, 12 Tigers were named to Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll: Taiwo Adeshigbin, Kaysie Clark, Brittany Conley, Diggs, Lauren Flynn, Hu, Haley Krentz, Danielle Nottingham, Brittanee Randle, Abi Raymer and Richardson.

NCAA SOCCER

- The Missouri Tigers have made the NCAA Tournament field five times in their history, with berths in 1999, 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2012.
- Mizzou owns a 2-3-2 mark in NCAA Tournament games.
- All seven of Missouri's NCAA games have been played at the team's home field of Walton Stadium.
- Mizzou's first-ever NCAA game, a 3-2 four overtime loss to Marquette in the 1999 first round, stands as Missouri's longest-ever match. The game went 142 minutes.
- The Tigers' all-time leading scorer Nikki Thole tallied Mizzou's first-ever NCAA Tournament goal in the game against Marquette.
- Three of Missouri's NCAA games, including the last two, have gone to penalty kicks following two overtime sessions.
- Six different Tigers have scored in NCAA Tournament games: Michelle Collins, Kristen Heil, Danielle Nottingham, Candace Ruff, Mallory Stipetich and Nikki Thole.
- Both Collins and Thole scored two goals in NCAA games. Both of Thole's came against Marquette in 1999, while Collins scored one against SEMO in 2007 and the other against Evansville in 2008.

The 2007 team celebrates after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Marquette 3, Missouri 2 (4OT)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The University of Missouri women's soccer team was defeated Wednesday, Nov. 10 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament by Marquette, 3-2 in four overtimes. The match, which was the longest in both programs' history, was decided in the 142nd minute when Marquette's Amy Hnatow scored her first career goal.

After 35 minutes of scoreless play, Marquete got on the board with a score from Kate Gordon, her ninth goal of the season. The score stayed 1-0 at halftime before Marquette added its second goal in the 54th minute. Erin Morgan netted her eighth of the season on a pass from Lannette Rossini and Marquette led the Tigers 2-0.

Just over two minutes later, Nikki Thole put MU on the scoreboard when she knocked home a goalie deflection with a soft headshot. Thole's 22nd of the season got Missouri back in the match and reenergized the Tigers.

After she was hauled down in the penalty box, Thole scored the equalizer on a penalty kick that beat Marquette's goalkeeper low right. From that point on, nearly a full match was played before the next goal was scored.

Three full overtimes, and most of the day's sunlight, came and went with the team's trading opportunities in the extra periods. At 141:13, Hnatow placed a shot over Missouri goalkeeper Jackie Adamec's head from the right side and Marquette had the victory.

Missouri 1, Eastern Illinois 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Appearing in the first NCAA Tournament match in four years, the Mizzou Tigers continued their hard fought post-season rally defeating Eastern Illinois 1-0. The victory marks Mizzou's first NCAA Tournament win in the history of the program.

After a lack luster first half, Mizzou didn't waste any time shining up the scoreboard during the second period. Just three minutes into play, Kristen Heil put Mizzou up 1-0 scoring her 10th goal of the season.

Preparing the scoring play deep in the midfield, forward Melissa Peabody sliced a pass to Adriene Davis in the midfield circle. One-touching a perfect pass to Heil at the top of the penalty box. Besting two EIU defenders and keeper Tiffany Groene, Heil deftly delivered the game-winner.

Kansas 2, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Riding through a roller coaster season, the Missouri soccer team ended the 2003 campaign with loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to No. 16-ranked Kansas, 2-0.

Backed by solid defensive play, Mizzou's offensive squad was able to concentrate its efforts on the KU net. Jennifer Nobis pulled out an exhilarating break away, but lost the ball to an aggressive play by Jayhawk keeper Meghan Miller.

Mizzou's defensive squad continued its valiant efforts, thwarting Kansas in the backfield. Unable to best the Tigers one-on-one, the Jayhawk offense finally found fruition in one of their nine cornerkicks. Lobbing a ball into the penalty box, the two teams batted the ball through the arcade of bodies until Smith caught a sharp foot on the ball and sailed it over the goal line.

Down 1-0 with just 13 minutes ticking on the clock, Missouri frantically tried to even out the score. Despite several extraordinary attempts by Davis, the Tigers struggled to come back. The frenzy opened up KU's second scoring play that dropped MU with a 2-0 deficit with just two minutes left to play. Kimberly Karfonta lofted a ball from midfield to Carmel Kaplinger who dribbled the ball to score.

Missouri 1, SEMO 1 (2-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The 23rd-ranked Missouri soccer team tied Southeast Missouri State (SEMO), 1-1, with the Tigers advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament on penalty kicks. The Tigers and Redhawks were scoreless through 67:36 of action before the game was decided, 2-0, on junior Kat Tarr and junior goalkeeper Mallory Forst's shootout shots. This marks Missouri's second time in the 12-year history of the program in which the Tigers have advanced to the second round of the tournament and first since 2003.

Sophomore Michelle Collins came up with Missouri's first goal of the night, dribbling the ball in from the top of the box. Shooting from eight yards out, Collins beat the keeper to the right, scoring 16:26 into the game. The goal was Collins' 12th of the year.

After SEMO tied the game and a scoreless overtime session, five Tigers were selected from the lineup to take Missouri's penalty shots. Tarr made Missouri's first penalty kick attempt but SEMO missed all four of theirs before Forst stepped up and hit her shot to advance the Tigers to the second round.

USC 1, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The eighth-ranked USC Trojans (16-3-2) defeated the 23rd-ranked Missouri Tigers (13-8-1), 1-0, in the second round of the NCAA Championship Sunday in Columbia, Mo.

USC scored the game-winning goal on a header from less than five yards out by midfielder Ashley Nick with 5:12 remaining in the second overtime period. USC midfielder Megan Ohai tallied the assist off a throw-in.

The first half ended scoreless, with Missouri out shooting the Trojans, 5-3. Missouri's best scoring chance came just four minutes into the game. Alysha Bonnick delivered two shots from inside the box, both saved by USC goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

USC dominated the first overtime, out-shooting the Tigers, 5-2. Five minutes into overtime USC's Amy Rodriguez ripped a shot from just inside the box that was saved by keeper Mallory Forst. Missouri's only scoring chance came with 18 seconds left when Michelle Collins took a pass from midfielder Mo Redmond and had a break away. After a shifty move, Collins fired a shot to the near post from six yards out but the USC goalie smothered the shot.

Nov. 14, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 2, Evansville 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Michelle Collins and Candace Ruff each scored a goal in the first half to give Missouri a first-round victory and send them to the second round.

With rain falling on the field and 14 mph winds coming from the northwest, the Missouri women decided to waste no time in securing their spot in Sunday's regional championship game. For the first time this year the Tigers played in the rain and showed little struggle in earning their 12th shutout of the season. Michelle Collins started things early for Mizzou as she took a pass from Crystal Wagner and sent a shot past Evansville goalkeeper Theresa Bagby in the third minute of play. The goal marked Collins seventh on the season and gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead.

The Aces weren't able to keep Mizzou quiet. Just thirty minutes after Collins' goal Ashley Hamblin passed one to Candace Ruff for the Tiger's second score of the game and Ruff's second career goal. Missouri recorded 16 shots in the first period while Evansville attempted just one.

NCAA Tournament Second Round
Nov. 16, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (4-3 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Missouri ended its season in a penalty kick shootout to the Illinois Fighting Illini 4-3 after a 1-1 game after two overtimes in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman Kelsey Blincow, sophomore Alysha Bonnick and junior Bree Thornton all converted their penalty kicks against Illinois goalkeeper Alexandra Kapicka. The Illini made their fourth of five attempts and Kapicka made a save on senior Mallory Forst's shot to send Illinois to the sweet sixteen.

Illinois dominated early play in the second half and the Illini went up 1-0 in the 56th minute when Jackie Santacaterina flicked a ball up to Chichi Nweke. The forward fired a 14-yard shot past Dittamore and into the lower far post.

Missouri responded in the 74th minute when junior Michelle Collins played a ball up to sophomore Alysha Bonnick, who sent a pass to a wide open Mallory Stipetich. The freshman one-timed a 15-yard shot to the left of Kapicka and into the net for a 1-1 game.

Regulation ended with both teams tied at 1-1 so the contest went to overtime. With 12 seconds left in the second overtime, Missouri earned a free kick five yards past the box. Andrighetto floated a ball to the far post but Bonnick's header few wide of the goal to thwart the scoring chance and send the game to a shootout.

2012

NCAA Tournament First Round
Nov. 11, 2012 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (3-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Following a 1-1 game after 110 minutes of play between Mizzou and Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the contest went to a penalty kick shootout, where Illinois advanced 3. The Tigers outshot the Fighting Illini 28-19 in the contest but had numerous shots hit off the post. Missouri concludes its season with a 14-7-1 record, while Illinois goes to 10-8-4.

The Tigers could not convert on their first three penalty kicks, while the Fighting Illini made their first three attempts to advance.

Illinois went up 1-0 in the 19th minute but Missouri battled back and used a goal from junior Danielle Nottingham to knot the score at 1-1 in the 53rd minute. Redshirt-freshman Lauren Flynn played a ball across the field to Nottingham, who was stationed outside the left corner of the box. Nottingham ripped a 20-yarder that sailed past Illinois' goalie and into the upper left netting. The tally was Nottingham's first of the season and ninth of her career. Flynn earned her first career assist on the play.

Mizzou sent a flurry of six shots toward the goal in the final nine minutes of regulation but could not take the lead. With just seconds remaining in the second half Grant blasted a shot but it flew just wide left of the goal.

Following a scoreless first overtime session, the Tigers again seemed likely to score in the second overtime. The home team managed to earn three corner kicks and got off three shots but again could not score to send the contest to a penalty kick shootout.

AUDREY J. WALTON STADIUM

Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium was opened in 1996 following a generous $1 donation from Mrs. Walton.

Seating renovations were completed in 1998 bringing the complex maximum attendance to 2,500 fans per game. As the Tiger program grew in popularity, the stadium warranted another upgrade in a lighting project completed in 2001. Various supporters donated $160,000 to install a state of the art lighting system.

Rejuvenating he facility in 2004, the Mizzou Athletic Department completed a field turf project replenishing the playing field with new Bermuda sod.

The Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium has played host to five NCAA soccer tournaments.
